Tell Us Once Service

The Tell Us Once Service can be used following a death to notify all government agencies that a person has passed away. This includes HMRC, DWP regarding pensions, the Passport Agency and others. Once you have registered a Death, the registrar will issue you with a unique reference number to enable you to use the Tell us Once Service. They will also provide you with contact details.

However, if you would like more information, you can also telephone 03000 41 51 51 or use the following e-mail address:
